Dedicated Software Engineer and Full Stack Developer with a B.E. in Computer Science. Skilled in developing robust backends, databases, and designing visually appealing front-end interfaces. Proficient in full stack development, adept at seamlessly integrating frontend and backend components for cohesive, high-performance applications. Actively upgrading web 2.0 applications to web 3.0, delivering innovative solutions at the intersection of blockchain and full stack development. Passionate about enhancing user experiences through thoughtful UI/UX design.

EXPERIENCE

Software Engineering Trainee

SecureKloud Technologies

September 2023 - Present

Demonstrating strong leadership and technical expertise, I led the development of an innovative Authentic Saree website, utilizing blockchain technology to enable seamless multi-franchise integration and robust product authentication. I spearheaded a cross-functional partnership with UI Design teams to create and optimize intuitive, user-friendly interfaces. I am committed to continuously expanding my technical skills, with a focus on Next.js, React.js, Node.js, and other cutting-edge technologies.

Full Stack Developer

SecureKloud Technologies

March 2023 - August 2023

Developed expertise in full-stack development, gaining hands-on experience with frontend, backend, and database technologies. Significantly contributed to the VerifiChain project, a revolutionary blockchain-based application ensuring the immutable verification of personal and professional data. Leveraged Vue.js for dynamic frontend interfaces, Python FastAPI for robust backend solutions, and Solidity for seamless blockchain integration.
